Jarom Jack Edwards, by the authority of the Melchizedek Priesthood and as an ordained patriarch, I place my hands upon your head and give you a patriarchal blessing.

Jarom, you are a beloved spirit child of your Father in Heaven. He has reserved you and foreordained you to come to the earth at this time when the gospel has been restored. He has a great work for you to do in building up His kingdom here upon the earth.

You are descended from Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. You are of the lineage of Ephraim. Through this lineage, you will receive many blessings and responsibilities. You will be blessed to proclaim the gospel. You will also be blessed to assist in the gathering of Israel which has begun in these latter days.

I bless you with the spirit of gratitude. You will be grateful for the many blessings that Heavenly Father has given you and will give you. As you pray to your Father in Heaven, you will express your thanks to Him. You will show your gratitude by living a righteous life and serving others. Express your gratitude to those around you, particularly your family, thanking them for all the many things that they have given for you.

I bless you that you will always be prayerful. Seek your Father in Heaven in humble prayer and I promise you that He will direct you and guide you, giving you peace and comfort as you go through life.

You will have the spirit of humility. You will be humble, teachable, and be receptive to counsel from Church leaders, both the General Authorities and your local leaders.

You will have a desire to seek after learning and education. This learning and education will be both of a spiritual and academic nature. You will have a love of the scriptures. As you study them and pray about them, you will increase your knowledge of your Heavenly Father and His Son, Jesus Christ.

I bless you that you will always remember the covenants that you have made. You will know and understand that they are sacred promises made to your Father in Heaven. Always do your best to keep the promises that you have made.

I bless you with a firm testimony of the gospel of Jesus Christ. This testimony will include the knowledge that the gospel has been restored in these latter days. You will know that Joseph Smith is a prophet of God and that the Book of Mormon is true.

You will serve a full-time mission. This mission will bless your life, but most importantly, it will bless the lives of those you teach and serve. I bless you that you will teach with power, authority, and humility.

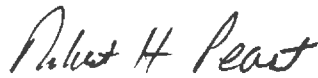

When the time is right, you will marry in the temple for time and all eternity. You will be blessed to have a wife who will love you, sustain you, and support you in all that you do. You will further be blessed to have children. They will be a great joy to you in your life. You will raise them in righteousness that they may also help build up the kingdom of God here upon the earth.

You will be kind and helpful to those around you. As you show love and compassion for them, you will help them and encourage them to become better.

You will have a desire to repent of the things that you may do wrong. Always seek for your Father in Heaven's forgiveness, repenting of the things that may keep you from attaining the goal of eternal life.

As you are faithful and obedient, all these blessings and many more will be yours.

I seal these blessings upon you and do so in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
